CALL TO WORSHIP (by Rev. Tony Sybrant)

Jim Blizard, Worship Leader

Leader: In the midst of storms it's easy to lose sight of the horizon.

People: Yet if we keep our eyes fixed on God we are not lost.

Leader: When waves and wind whip us about, we can lose heart.

People: Yet if we remember God is with us we can take heart.

Leader: On this voyage we're on we will face perils.

People: Yet we will be courageous, for God has overcome the world!

Leader: Day by day we are sustained with grace.

People: By God's grace we are sustained, let us worship God!

Wonderful Grace of Jesus

OPENING PRAYER

Jim Blizard

We praise you, O God, for the meaning that you give to our lives in and through Jesus. He is the sign of your deep and everlasting love for the world and we rejoice in his promise to sustain us with his life. We praise you for your never-ending saving grace. When all else fails, we know and give thanks that you are with us. May our worship and praise express our thanks, O God, for your gift to us of the true bread from heaven—Jesus Christ, your Son, our living Lord. Amen

SCRIPTURE READING

Acts 27:27-44

²⁷ On the fourteenth night we were still being driven across the Adriatic^[a] Sea, when about midnight the sailors sensed they were approaching land. ²⁸ They took soundings and found that the water was a hundred and twenty feet^[b] deep. A short time later they took soundings again and found it was ninety feet^[c] deep. ²⁹ Fearing that we would be dashed against the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight. ³⁰ In an attempt to escape from the ship, the sailors let the lifeboat down into the sea, pretending they were going to lower some anchors from the bow. ³¹ Then Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men stay with the ship, you cannot be saved.” ³² So the soldiers cut the ropes that held the lifeboat and let it drift away.

³³ Just before dawn Paul urged them all to eat. “For the last fourteen days,” he said, “you have been in constant suspense and have gone without food—you haven’t eaten anything. ³⁴ Now I urge you to take some food. You need it to survive. Not one of you will lose a single hair from his head.” ³⁵ After he said this, he took some bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all. Then he broke it and began to eat. ³⁶ They were all encouraged and ate some food themselves. ³⁷ Altogether there were 276 of us on board. ³⁸ When they had eaten as much as they wanted, they lightened the ship by throwing the grain into the sea.

⁴² The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners to prevent any of them from swimming away and escaping. ⁴³ But the centurion wanted to spare Paul’s life and kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and get to land. ⁴⁴ The rest were to get there on planks or on other pieces of the ship. In this way everyone reached land safely.

HOLY COMMUNION

Pastor Jess

Communion will be celebrated using individually wrapped cups and wafers. Gluten-free options are also available.

INVITATION

Christ our Lord invites to His table all who love Him, who turn away from sin, and seek to live in peace with one another. Therefore, let us confess our sins before God and one another.

RECEIVING THE BREAD AND CUP

CLOSING HYMN

A Place at the Table

(from Worship & Song #3149)

1. For everyone born, a place at the table, for everyone born, clean water and bread, a shelter, a space, a safe place for growing, for everyone born, a star overhead.

*(Chorus): And God will delight when we are creators of justice and joy.
yes, God will delight when we are creators of justice, justice and joy!*

2. For woman and man, a place at the table, revising the roles, deciding to share, with wisdom and grace, dividing the power, for woman and man, a system that’s fair.
(Chorus)

3. For young and for old, a place at the table, a voice to be heard, a part in the song, the hands of a child in hands that are wrinkled, for young and for old, the right to belong.
(Chorus)

4. For just and unjust, a place at the table, abuser, abused, with need to forgive, in anger, in hurt, a mindset of mercy, for just and unjust, a new way to live.
(Chorus)

5. For everyone born, a place at the table, to live without fear, and simply to be, to work, to speak out, to witness and worship, for everyone born, the right to be free.
(Chorus)

CELEBRATING OUR GIFTS FOR MISSION AND MINISTRY

We welcome all who worship with us this morning. We ask you to prayerfully consider giving generously to support the ministries of FUMC and the communities we serve for Christ. You can place your offering and the Attendance Card including any special prayer requests you may have in the offering baskets located in the worship space or send them to church@meetwithGod.com.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing,

always and everywhere to give thanks to You,

for You, O God, have faithfully seen Your people through the many storms and shipwrecks of life.

When Jonah weathered the storms of disobedience,

When Joseph weathered the storms of betrayal,

When Moses weathered the storms of hunger and thirst,

When Esther weathered the storms of threats of violence,

You Lord were faithful in providing sustenance for their missions to continue.

Lord we are thankful that You sustained Your children with the grace of hope, dreams of a brighter future, food and drink in a dry and barren desert, and courage in the face of great pressure.

Just as God provided for the saints of old,

so too does God provide for us today. Here. Now.

And so, with Your people on earth and all the company of heaven

we praise Your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of Your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

In time God sent Jesus, God with us, to show us the way, and the truth, and the life.

On the night in which He gave himself up for us, facing the worst storm we can imagine, Jesus wanted His very body to be driftwood that serves us and sustains us. He took bread, gave thanks to You, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over, He took the cup, again He wanted His very blood to be a saving grace that carries us to new life and sustains us for our missions and callings. So, Jesus gave thanks to You, gave it to His disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so, thankful for the saving grace we receive and remember in these mighty acts of Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out Your Holy Spirit on us gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be kept afloat as we serve the world as the body of Christ, redeemed by His blood. By Your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory and we feast at His heavenly banquet. Through Your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in Your holy Church, all honor and glory is Yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER - Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

BREAKING THE BREAD

Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf. The bread which we break is a sharing in the body of Christ.

The cup over which we give thanks is a sharing in the blood of Christ.
